YALE MAN ONE-MILE CHAMPION

Victory Due to the Fact That Grehman, of Chicago, Fell Near the Finish.

WORLD'S RECORDS BROKEN

Extraordinary Record Made With the Discus-University of Virginia Takes a Race.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PHILADELPHIA, PA., April 29.-Penn sylvania's eleventh annual relay games drew a big crowd to Franklin Field today, in spite of the most unpropitious of weather conditions. The fine rain that fell at intervals did not daunt the great turn out of track and field men from American schools and colleges, and the events were as bitterly contested as though the track had been in the most perfect shape.

events were as bitterly contested as though the track had been in the most perfect shape.

Amsler early enthused the Pennsylvania partisans by landing the 120 yard hurdle in the good time of 15 4-5 seconds. The shot put went to Cee, with a hurl of 46 feet 11 1-2 inches.

Hagenson, of 'Chicago, proved good enough to land the hundred yard dash, though Dear, of Pennsylvania, pushed him hard. The time was ten seconds flat.

The one mile relay championship proved an magnificent race between Chicago, Yale and Pennsylvania. The Westerners might have soon had not their man fallen just as he neared the tape. He then had a clear lead. As it was, Yale took first place, with Pennsylvania second. Yale won the two mile relay and Michigan the four mile event, Michigan heat Yale about two yards in the long race, and the time-18 minutes 25 3-5 seconds-broke the world's record. The summaries:

One mile-First, Erasmus Hall High School (G. Yale); second, High School of Combrec (K. Machlon, N. Pfetschluger.

of the heart, so serious that I feared that I would some time drop dead upon the street. One day I read one of your circulars, and immediately went to my druggist and purchased two botties of the Heart Cure, and took It according to directions, with the result that I am entirely cured. Since then I never miss an opportunity to recommend this remedy to my friends who have heart trouble; in fact I am and two diners, together with the locomotive and a freight car, were piled into a heap, and in an instant fire broke out in the cooking end of the diners. Dr. McKelway, Professor Farnam, Mrs. Farnam, Mrs. Thorp, Dr. Dreher and Robert M. Ogden were eating breakfast in the second diner, which was torn to pieces. The floor collapsed, and the passengers were picked up from the track. The seven sleeping cars behind the diners were left intact, but the shock sprung many locks, imprisoning the occupants. Seth Low and Mrs. Low, Bishop McVickar and others were rescued when the doors were smashed open with axes. The passengers in the St. James were quickly removed, but the three negroes could not be saved. They breathed the flames and died. When he saw that the crash could not be averted, Engineer Hunter, of the Ogden train, applied the emergency brakes and Jumped.

Costly Baggage Burned.

Costly Baggage Burned.

Costly Baggage Burned.

Practically all of the baggage, said to be valued at $12,000, was destroyed. It is claimed that a misunderstanding of orders led to the accident. The north-bound passenger train to New York had orders to take the siding at Parls, a way station four miles north of Greenville. The freight, which was being made up here, was on the main line.

As a result of the wreck, President Ogden abandoned his trip to other points, and the special left te-night for the East, Professor Farnam and wife remaining here in a hospital.

At the coroner's inquest, the special train dispatcher testified /that orders to the effect that "the Ogden special will arrive at 7:15" were filed in the yardmaster's office, and later that another order was filed that the special would arrive at 7:55. Yardmaster Riser testified that he received no orders whatever to that effect.

Cause of the Wreck.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—To the fact that the Ogden special was running forty minutes late is attributed the wreck at Greenville, S. C., to-day by officials of the Southern Railway here. Although late, the special was running under revised orders, and no fault, it is stated, could be attached to her crew: The crew operating the switch engine supposed the special had cleared the yard forty minutes prior to the accident, and at the time were shifting cars from one side of the yard to the other, which necessitated crossing the main track. The special was running thirty miles an hour. The engine of the special is a complete wreck, lying overturned across the track. Two dining cars, a club car the track. Two dining ears, a club car and a baggage car were demolished. Fire, which followed the collision, was quickly extinguished. A box car, a coal car and four freight cars, the obstruction to the special, also were demolished. Added to the list of injured are the following: Negro employes, S. T. Hill, Henry Wiley, J. E. Hargraves, W. W. Walker, W. Mickens and Abbot Mc-Intyre.

Conductor Acker was bruised on the left cheek and left leg. Trainmaster Mackswell was bruised and his left hand cut. Baggagemaster Downs was bruised. The Southern placed a special train at the disposal of the party, to run either to Biltmore, N. C., or New York, but after consideration it was decided to come North.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., April 29.—What remained of the old vacant house on Francis Stree, belonging to the Eastern State Hospital was destroyed by fire last night. The fire had gained considerable headway when discovered about 1 o'clock, and being unsightly as well as worthless, it was allowed to burn down without any attempt being made to extinguish the fire.

This is the second time that fire has occurred at this place within two weeks. On the fire is believed to be the work of some machicous, thoughtess boys. The authorities will probably take steps to catch the culprits.

Lady Drops Dead. Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., April 29.—Just after she had packed her trunk to leave for home, in the county, Mrs. Mary M. Taylor, who had been visiting her daughter, in Winchester, dropped dead, here last night. She was 75 years and and leaves one son and five daughters.

Ham salad, with buttered wafer-like slices or graham bread, found much favor at a reception. The ham was molded into little banket shapes, and when turned out, each little pink basket was partly filled with a cream mayonaise and surrounded by tiny lettuce leaves, while two arched plumes of paraley simwhile two arched plumes of paraley sim-ulated little handles. These placed on preity plates formed a delectable decora-tive fancy. For the ham preparation, chop one cupful cooked ham very fine. Soak one tablespoonful gelatine in one tablespoonful cold water for half an hour, then dissolve in a cupful hot water; to which and a teaspoonful each of onion juice and chopped parsley. Add to the hum and stir occasionally until the mix-ture thickens, fold in a cup of whipped cream and add half a tablespoonful pap-rika and sait as needed. Form into molds, if the larder does not contain the cooked meat, use a can of devilled ham.—Eleanor M. Lucas.
